Advent Opportunities for You

It’s all too easy to get caught up in the busyness of this month. Our preparations for Christmas, our participation in holiday parties, our propensity to shift our focus from the sacred to the secular can leave us wanting. Rather than feeling harried when Christmas arrives; tired and worn out and asking ourselves, “Why all this?,” Advent is a time to slow down, to prepare, to take in the meaning of this graced season. And that’s where we want to help... Let your parish nurture and nourish you this Advent. Here are some opportunities for just that.

But First,
I want to thank the many, many volunteers who contributed to our Thanksgiving Outreach Dinner for the needy. From noon to 4:00pm we provided a lovely Thanksgiving dinner to nearly 200 people. The grace of God was there extraordinarily. When we underscore the meaning of Thanksgiving with an event such as this, and the meaning of Advent with the opportunities I’m about to share, we are never left wanting.

Immaculate Conception
This Thursday, December 8th we will observe the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which is one of the few non-Sunday Holy Days of Obligation. There are Masses at 8:30am, 12:15pm and 7:00pm. As a Church, we are nearing the day Mary gave birth to our Savior. It is fitting that we celebrate in December our belief that Mary, above all women and men, received a singular grace when conceived free from the stain of original sin. In her, God prepared the first tabernacle for his only son.

Our Lady of Guadalupe
This Sunday December 11th at the 1:30pm Spanish Mass we celebrate the feast day of Our Lady of Guadalupe. This festive Mass is open to all parishioners, so if you’re in the mood to expand your cultural understanding of the larger Church community, come celebrate with us. We honor the apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary to St. Juan Diego in 1531 in what is now Mexico City. Learn the history of this amazing apparition and its aftermath: the astounding peaceful conversion of 6 million indigenous people to Catholicism. Our Mass will be followed by mananitas sung by a mariachi band and a lovely fiesta of food and entertainment in the parish hall.

Christmas Concert
On December 15th at 6:00pm St. Raymond School will have its Christmas concert in the hall. Here, our school children will entertain their parents and all of us with their talents and music. On Friday December 16th at 7:00pm in the church come and join us for our 2nd Christmas Lessons and Carols Concert. You need to mark this event on your calendar. Many of our choirs will be performing Christmas carols and music, interspersed with readings from Sacred Scripture. All those who attended last year raved about this event. Invite your friends!

Simbang Gabi
On December 17th and 18th at 7:00 pm you can share in two other cultural expressions of the Christmas Season with our Filipino and Latino Catholic communities. On December 17th in the church we will celebrate Simbang Gabi, a Filipino novena of Masses which takes place (usually at the crack of dawn) during the nine days before Christmas. At St. Raymond we will celebrate Simbang Gabi just once on the 17th at 7:00pm in the church followed by traditional Filipino food at a reception in the hall. Then on the 18th after the 6:00pm Mass it’s Las Posadas. This charming Latino traditional reenactment of Mary and Joseph in their search for a place to bear the Christ child will take place on the plaza. We will search for an “inn” and eventually find a nice reception at the parish hall where refreshments and a piñata for the children await.

Advent Reconciliation Service
On Tuesday December 20th come to the church for our Advent Reconciliation Service. Here, just before Christmas, you and I can share in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and, like the prodigal son, personally experience the immensity of God’s mercy and forgiveness. Reconciliation is also offered on December 21st in the church (though there will be fewer priests this night) as well as each Saturday during Advent at 3:30pm in the church.

Enrich and Bless
Do I expect you to be part of all of these events? Well, no. But I hope for your participation in them to enrich and bless you during this holiday time. Do engage in God’s particular graces offered on December 8th and in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Do check your calendar for the other events. You won’t be left wanting for having made the trip. God bless you.

With Love in Christ,
Fr. Lawrence D’Anjou

Gospel Reading

Background on the Gospel Reading
In this week’s Gospel Reading and next week’s, our Advent preparation for Christmas invites us to consider John the Baptist and his relationship to Jesus. In this week’s Gospel, Matthew describes the work and preaching of John the Baptist.

John the Baptist appears in the tradition of the great prophets of Israel, preaching repentance and reform to the people of Israel. In fact, the description of John found in this reading is reminiscent of the description of the prophet Elijah (2 Kings 1:8). In this reading, John directs a particularly pointed call to repentance to the Pharisees and Sadducees, parties within the Jewish community of the first century.

John marks the conversion of those who seek him out with a baptism of repentance. Other groups in this period are thought to have practiced ritual washings for similar purposes, and John's baptism may have been related to the practices of the Essenes, a Jewish sect of the first century. John’s baptism can be understood as an anticipation of Christian baptism. In this passage, John himself alludes to the difference between his baptism and the one yet to come: “I am baptizing you with water, for repentance . . . He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” (Matthew 3:11).

In this reading, John makes very clear that his relationship to the Messiah yet to come (Jesus) is one of service and subservience: “. . . the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals” (Matthew 3:11). In the context of Matthew’s Gospel, today's passage is followed by Jesus’ baptism by John, an event that is attested to in all four of the Gospels and appears to have been the start of Jesus' public ministry.

John’s preaching of the coming of the Lord is a key theme of the Advent season. As John’s message prepared the way for Jesus in the first century, we, too, are called to prepare ourselves for Jesus’ coming. We respond to John’s message by our repentance and reform of our lives. We are also called to be prophets of Christ, who announce by our lives, as John did, the coming of the Lord.

Treasures from Our Traditions
Did St. Francis of Assisi invent the Christmas crib? Not exactly, but his devotion to the Incarnation and his love for the poverty of the Christ Child certainly popularized this beloved custom. Long before Francis, it was a custom at the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome to enshrine a rich image of Mary, gilded and bejewelled, embracing the child Jesus. This church was founded as a kind of home for the feast of Christmas in the fourth century. In 1223, Francis was ready to celebrate this feast in a new way. In the tiny city of Greccio, he asked friends to prepare a place where they could experience the poverty and suffering embraced by Christ in his birth. It was a living scene: an ox from the barn, an ass from the stable, and peasants standing in for shepherds and kings. The night of the celebration was beautiful, the weather was warm, and people came in crowds, bearing candles and singing hymns that echoed through the forest. Francis himself chanted the Gospel and preached. The custom spread quickly, and by the sixteenth century cribs were seasonal features not only in church, but in the home.

On December 17, the liturgy begins to unfold the Lord’s birth before us, and it’s the right time to follow this beautiful tradition. In Germany, each night throughout Advent children prepare a bedding for the manger. At bedtime prayer, a child places a single straw in the manger for each act of devotion or virtue performed during the day. If the children are good, then the Christ child will have plenty of soft bedding when he is placed in the manger on Christmas.
